7 Must Try Restaurants in Las Vegas

November 19, 2013.

Diners in Las Vegas have it all. You've got your celebrity chef flagships, cheesy buffets and chains catering to every palate and price point. Whatever your reason for visiting this entertainment capital, you know you've gotta eat. Here are my top picks for where to chow down in Sin City.

La Cave

This wine bar inside the Wyn serves up small plates in an elegant setting overlooking one of the main pools. Pop in here for nibbles and wine flights specific to the world's major growing regions. Diners do well sampling a well constructed Caesar Salad and Angus Sliders (that are delightfully pink in the middle), plus an assortment of toothsome Flatbreads – including s'mores!
